

Chapter 8 Test Review U.S. History

Name ☺ _____ Hour ☺ _____

Terms:

Precedent (8-1):

National Debt (8-1):

Bond (8-1):

Unconstitutional (8-1):

Tariff (8-1):

Neutrality (8-2):

Impressments (8-2):

Partisan (8-3):

Implied Powers (8-3):

Caucus (8-3):

Alien (8-3):

Sedition (8-3):

Nullify (8-3):

States' Rights (8-3):

People:

George Washington:

Thomas Jefferson:

Alexander Hamilton:

John Adams:

Charles Maurice de Tallyrand:

John Jay:

Edmund Randolph:

Henry Knox:

Concepts:

George Washington's Cabinet Departments and their responsibility (8-1)

Judiciary Act of 1789 (8-1):

Hamilton's proposal for strengthening the economy, why some opposed, the compromise (8-1):

Bank of the U.S.: why created, how constitutionally did they justify its creation, & why some were against it (8-1):

Treaty of Greenville: (What happened, where, & why important?) (8-2)

Jay's Treaty: (What happened, where, & why important?) (8-2)

Pinckney's Treaty: (What happened, where, & why important?) (8-2)

Whiskey Rebellion: (What happened, where, & why important?) (8-2)

Why was the election of 1796 unusual? (8-3)

Alien and Sedition Act (What were they and why did Federalists pass them): (8-3)

Naturalization Act: (8-3)

XYZ Affair: (8-3)

Differences between Federalists & Republicans: (Jefferson & Hamilton) (8-3 – Chart)

Kentucky & Virginia Resolutions: (8-3)

Test Document: Review the treaty document (Treaty of Greenville, Jay's Treaty, & Pinckney's Treaty) and the Venn diagram that you completed in class. PDF available on class website.

Test Document and Essay: George Washington's Farewell Address

1. Study the Washington Farewell Address Google Document that we completed in class (another version is on the class website). Review all portions of the farewell address, translations, and opinion on whether we followed his advice or not.
2. Historical Question (essay): In your opinion, which piece of advice from Washington's Farewell Address do you believe to be the most important for the new nation? The essay needs to be written in the Claim-Evidence-Reasoning format.