

Jefferson vs. Hamilton
U.S. History ~ Extra Credit

Extra Credit: For this extra credit opportunity, you are to create a PowerPoint (Google Slides), Poster, Essay, Skit, or Video that compares and contrasts Thomas Jefferson and Alexander Hamilton. This comparison/contrast should cover them both personally and their impact on our country.

Topics:

- Personal/Background (Including positions/involvement in Government)
- Conflicts between the two men
- Ideas on how a “good” Government should be structured
- Beliefs on the future development of the U.S. Economic System
- Issues from the time period: Bank of the U.S., Elastic Clause, Whiskey Tax, Foreign Policy, Jay’s Treaty, Nullification, Alien & Sedition Acts.

Summary:

- Your personal opinion about the two different visions for our developing country

Points: This extra credit opportunity will fall in the Test/Project category and the number of points given will be based on the quality of the project (between 1 and 10 points).

Jefferson vs. Hamilton
U.S. History ~ Extra Credit

Extra Credit: For this extra credit opportunity, you are to create a PowerPoint (Google Slides), Poster, Essay, Skit, or Video that compares and contrasts Thomas Jefferson and Alexander Hamilton. This comparison/contrast should cover them both personally and their impact on our country.

Topics:

- Personal/Background (Including positions/involvement in Government)
- Conflicts between the two men
- Ideas on how a “good” Government should be structured
- Beliefs on the future development of the U.S. Economic System
- Issues from the time period: Bank of the U.S., Elastic Clause, Whiskey Tax, Foreign Policy, Jay’s Treaty, Nullification, Alien & Sedition Acts.

Summary:

- Your personal opinion about the two different visions for our developing country

Points: This extra credit opportunity will fall in the Test/Project category and the number of points given will be based on the quality of the project (between 1 and 10 points).

Jefferson vs. Hamilton
U.S. History ~ Extra Credit

Extra Credit: For this extra credit opportunity, you are to create a PowerPoint (Google Slides), Poster, Essay, Skit, or Video that compares and contrasts Thomas Jefferson and Alexander Hamilton. This comparison/contrast should cover them both personally and their impact on our country.

Topics:

- Personal/Background (Including positions/involvement in Government)
- Conflicts between the two men
- Ideas on how a “good” Government should be structured
- Beliefs on the future development of the U.S. Economic System
- Issues from the time period: Bank of the U.S., Elastic Clause, Whiskey Tax, Foreign Policy, Jay’s Treaty, Nullification, Alien & Sedition Acts.

Summary:

- Your personal opinion about the two different visions for our developing country

Points: This extra credit opportunity will fall in the Test/Project category and the number of points given will be based on the quality of the project (between 1 and 10 points).