

Name: _____ HR: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 16: The War's Final Stages – Section 5 (pages 506-512)

1. Define:

Total War:

Resistance:

2. Union Strategy

What river did the Union control which cut off the western Confederate states?

In Grant's plan, what city would he attack with his army?

Where would Sherman attack with his army?

3. The Wilderness Campaign

Date:

Location:

North: How many soldiers? Commander?

South: How many soldiers? Commander?

Describe the battle: Major points of battle, leaders, outcome.

What killed 200 wounded men during this time?

Where were the next two battles fought?

Grant's critics in the north called him a butcher because of the huge loss of life among his troops. In thirty days how many troops did he lose?

The Petersburg Siege

Why was the capture of Petersburg so important to the Union?

How long did it take to capture Petersburg?

Sherman in Georgia

Which major city did Sherman capture in Georgia?

What date did Confederate General John Hood surrender?

Farragut at Mobile Bay

Who led a fleet of 18 ships into a channel to Mobile Bay, Alabama?

What made navigating through the channel to Mobile Bay tough?

Where was Farragut during the battle?

Why was this an important battle for the Union?

The Election of 1864

What would happen if Lincoln was not elected President?

Lincoln interpreted winning the election as a sign from voters to end what?

What did congress pass to end slavery?

8. The War's End:

Sherman's trail of destruction from Atlanta to the coast was known as what?

How did African Americans in the south react to Sherman's march?

9. Surrender at Appomattox

What day did the war end on?

Where did General Lee surrender to General Grant?

What were the terms of the surrender?